

Church of St. Peter Marriage Enrichment Evening

Take time for a night out with your spouse

An evening for married couples

Saturday, November 1

5:00-8:30 p.m.

(Following the 4:00 p.m. Mass)

About John and Dia Boyle:

The Boyle's, both converts to Catholicism, have lived in St. Paul for almost 20 years. They have three children — Jack (20), Mary (15), and Joe (8).

Dia is a homemaker and also writes regularly for the Catholic Servant. Her book Stone and Glass on the spiritual meaning of the Cathedral of St. Paul should be out by Christmas.

John is a Professor of Theology and Catholic Studies at the University of St. Thomas.

Through reflection on Church teaching, a sense of humor, and their own years of experience, the Boyles will be speaking about the vocation of marriage and how it leads us to holiness.

All engaged and married couples are invited to a special Marriage Enrichment Evening at the Church of St. Peter.

Join us in Fellowship Hall for an Italian buffet dinner featuring: Mostaccioli, Italian Sausage & Peppers, Baked Chicken rubbed with Italian Seasoning, Italian Salad, Garlic Breadsticks, Brownies and Wine. The dinner is catered by DeGidio's Italian Restaurant.

After dinner, the Boyle's will engage you in an inspirational presentation entitled:

“Seriously, marriage leads to holiness?”
